Part A: Overview and Highlights:

Given the temporary closure of schools for the holidays, the Foundation did not conduct any activities in November. We however continued to utilize this period to plan and prepare for a prosperous and impactful academic year in 2025.

This report highlights the Foundation’s key updates to note in November.

Part B: November 2024 Testimonials and Success Stories – “A Human Impact”

A testimonial from Veronica Mbeti Kioko Student at Kanaani Integrated School J.S.S

“I am very grateful for the love and caring you’ve been showing us we are thankful for the pads you’ve been donating to us before you started helping us most of the girls were shy and uncourageous and shameful for themselves, the menses stained their clothes which made the girls lack confidence, most of us girls were shy but for the distribution of pads to our school, we are confident and courageous to thank you superior Homes Foundation. We hope that you will continue helping other schools. Thanks once again for your kindness, carE and love you’ve been showing us.”

Part G: Plan for the Upcoming Month of November 2024

- Superior Homes Foundation’s school-based initiatives for girls will pause until the new term begins. In the meantime, our focus will shift toward broader community support to continue making a positive impact. We look forward to resuming school-centred activities in January with renewed dedication to empowering young learners and with new targets in mind.
- We will also donate feminine hygiene products to Mavoko Constituency in support of their 2024 Christmas bonanza.
